Honorable Court:

I, Ryan Richard Thompson, hereby respond to the Petition for Custody filed by Kimberly Dawn Young regarding our children, Jennie Thompson, Iriel Thompson, and Amalie Thompson. I respectfully present the following details for consideration:

1. Residence and Commitment to Children:

- While I reside primarily in Hawaii, I have been living in Lane County intermittently to ensure that I remain close to my children. Their education and stability have been my priority, prompting my temporary relocation to Oregon.

2. School Stability:

- Kimberly and I previously agreed to maintain the children's school stability. Despite this agreement, in April, their stepfather, Rory Young, engaged in a verbal altercation with the principal of Amalie Thompson's school, leading to the abrupt unenrollment of all three children just a month and a half before the school year ended.

3. Impact on Children's Well-being:

- The instability and parental conflicts have severely impacted our children. Both Jennie and Amalie have exhibited self-harm behaviors, as reported to CPS. Additionally, Kimberly removed Amalie from her counselor, further exacerbating the situation.

4. Parental Alienation:

- Since our divorce in 2020, there have been numerous instances of parental alienation by Kimberly. Recorded conversations and therapy sessions reveal efforts to turn the children against me, negatively affecting their emotional well-being.

5. Safety Concerns:

- There have been several instances where Kimberly's actions have jeopardized our children's safety. These include leaving our 11-year-old in charge of younger siblings for an extended period and leaving our 16-year-old alone in Hawaii while she traveled to Eugene.

6. Efforts to Maintain a Stable Environment:

- I have made significant efforts to provide a stable and loving environment for our children. This includes relocating to Oregon, participating in their activities, and ensuring their needs are met financially and emotionally. For example, I funded a trip to Universal Studios for Spring Break, which was a positive experience for the children.

7. Financial Support:

- Between March and April, I transferred $12,500 to Kimberly, despite our 50/50 custody arrangement. This demonstrates my ongoing financial commitment to our children.

8. Service Dog:

- Due to a severe car accident in 2013, I rely on my service dog, Widget, for emotional and physical support. He has been a crucial part of my recovery and daily life.

Request for Relief:

1. I request that the court maintain the current 50/50 custody arrangement to ensure that our children have a stable and loving environment with both parents actively involved in their lives.

2. I ask the court to consider the evidence of parental alienation and its impact on our children's well-being.

3. I request the court to delay the hearing until late July to allow me time to secure legal representation. I am actively working to raise funds to hire an attorney and navigate the legal system effectively.

I appreciate the court's consideration of these matters and am committed to ensuring the best interests of my children are upheld.

Respectfully submitted,

In response to the petition by Kimberly Young for custody of my children I wanted to respond with some details that she failed to address properly and some of the details she failed to address it all some of the details are incorrect entirely I have been living in Lane County off and on sole purpose to see my children .

I reside in Hawaii my address is in Hawaii but since the kids go to school here I voluntarily came to Oregon.

My petition to the children's mother has been to keep the kids in the same school while the kids are with me, that is why I am here in Lane County. The children's mother and I both agreed that we would not abruptly change the children's school any more, and the reason that I came to Oregon, rather than stay in Hawaii, is to meet the mother half way to keep the kids in a stable situation.

However, at the beginning of April, the children's stepfather Rory Young, had a verbal altercation with the principle of Amalie Thompson's school, about a parking situation. And that day, due to that argument, abruptly unenrolled three of the children from this school. Just a month and a half before school ends. And in the next school year, Amalie will now change schools again to go to middle school. One of the consequences of all of these abrupt changes, and infighting in the family, is that both Jennie (Jamie) Thompson and Amalie Thompson have been reported to CPS for self harm, cutting on themselves. I was informed of this also in April, right before the abrupt unenrollment of the children from their school, and also the same week Kimberly removed Amalie from her counselor (therapist) that she has been going to for over a year.

All of this started right after I divorced their mother in 2020. The infighting, the parental alienation tactics. During two incidences, the kids informed me via a recorded call that their mother was trying to make them pick sides, and they reported to me that their mother was saying bad things that were untrue about me, to get the children to hate me. Kimberly also warned me in December 2020 that she would be certain to turn the children against me. Since my phone records calls automatically, I recorded Kimberly threatening to turn the kids against me in retaliation for divorcing her. On Christmas of 2020, Kimberly refused to take money from me that I sent to our joint bank account, and then also refused a paypal payment that I sent her for $600 to buy the kids Christmas presents. At that time she also kept refusing my calls to speak to them that Christmas. This was what the kids reported to their therapist in Pahoa Hawaii, Yvette A Skope Marriage & Family Therapist, LMFT. I have that therapy session recorded as well, because Zoom automatically records video sessions.

In this recorded phone call, Kimberly first destroys the children's Christmas by refusing to allow me to give them presents or any Christmas wishes in December 2020.

In that same conversation, Kim and I spoke about the week before Christmas, when Kim left our 11 year old child Jennie, to was our 9 and 7 year old children to go on an over night date with a random person. During that 14 hour date, 2 teenagers broke in to the garage to steal from us, terrifying the children. Reference: <https://tinyurl.com/2s3ydd85>

A month later, Kimberly would leave our 16 year old daughter in Hawaii for 3 days to go to Eugene Oregon, so that she could meet up with her now husband Rory. There was no adult in the home at the time, for those 3 days.

This is also what motivated me to leave Hawaii to be close to the children. Because I worried about their safety.

On April 6th 2024, Kimberly called me and texted me, and I can provide those references, asking me to come back to Eugene to help with the children's transportation to and from school and events. I dropped my project that I was working on in Utah, and came directly back to Eugene and I rented an AirBnb for myself and the children. Because it is my turn to take the children now.

When I got here, her husband was very hostile to me. This was the same week that he had previously and abruptly removed the children from their elementary school, after getting in a verbal disagreement with the principle over parking.

When I came to see Amalie on April 13th, I had texted Kim 20 minutes before arriving and told her I was coming to talk with Amalie.

The reason I was coming over, is because I was informed that Kim was going to let her go with a friend and the friend's single father on a camping trip. I just wanted to meet the father, because he was new to their lives. I came over about 30 minutes before the friend was suppose to arrive.

I was hugging Amalie in the doorway, and I saw my daughter Jennie (Jamie) and asked her for a hug, She declined and said something about pronouns. I apologized to her telling her that I didn't believe that it was my language or beliefs to use these pronouns, but that I still loved her. Then her stepfather Rory Young, started shouting to leave his house. He was upset about the pronoun issue, because he himself is transgender or transvestite.

I did not say anything harmful, I just decline to use "they/them" pronouns, respectfully. When Rory told me to leave the house, I did leave. He then pushed passed the kids, as I was on my way to the car, I told him "fuck off", he ended up behind me. When I turned around he hit me in the head. I did not punch him one time. I only grabbed him, and hugged him, and pulled him to the ground, to negate the conflict. While we were on the ground, and I was holding him. My ex wife Kimberly, started kicking me in the back. I then had to grab Rory by the neck with my teeth to hold him, and he was grabbing at my crotch, while I was trying to grab and hold Kimberly's leg from kicking me. There was a police report and pictures taken of my bloody face, and the damage to my back, arms and chest. The kids say that they saw me push him. It is possible I did. He was 2 inches from my face when I turned around, and he was shouting and spitting has he shouted at me. I may have pushed him, but I did not punch him once.

His ex-wives both of them, report him as a violent domestic abuser, there is a long history of his conflicts with his 2 ex-wives. His first ex-wife died, and his oldest daughter is reported to blame him for the death, and the emotional abuse that he put her through, and his oldest daughter refuses to talk to him, according to his last ex-wife Sheena. When I looked up his criminal records, I was quite alarmed by that back and forth of police intervention with his ex-wife and him.

I want to remain 50/50 custody so that my kids have a loving and protective father in their lives. For Spring Break I took them to Universal Studios in Hollywood, we had a great time, they still tell me as late as last week how good of time we had. We did not speak once about pronouns or LGBT issues, they both say that as well. The only time the LGBT topic comes up, is when the step dad or the older children are around. Otherwise it is not a topic. We have a lot of fun together, and I am a committed and dedicated father. It has taken me less than a year now to get stable in Oregon, where I had no friends or family when I came here. But I am doing well now, I have a home, and Im near the children's school district. I had paid for and attended every gymnastic training of Amalie last year, except for a month when I was in Ireland. Otherwise I was there for all of her practices. I buy them clothes, and electronics, and pay for trips and vacations on a regular basis. Our trip to Universal Studios cost no less than $5000. All of my extra money and energy go into these children.

Also between March and April, I gave Kimberly $12,500 transferred to her bank account $1000 from my tax returns and $11397 from a settlement that I got from Social security, which despite have 50/50 custody, I gave the bulk of that settlement to Kimberly.

If it was not for these children, I would have never moved to Oregon. I miss Hawaii. But I love my children more.

Included in this, is my report to CPS, after learning about the investigation into Kimberly and Rory's household concerning my children.

This last video is of a father's day celebration the kids did for me. This shows all four of my children talking about how much they love me, and all of the good times we had. This is prior to the divorce. This video was made by Kimberly Young. <https://tinyurl.com/mrxz9asz>

This is the last conversation that I had with Amalie, recorded May 24th 2024.

On that same day, I called CPS to follow up about the disturbing behavior and language that my daughter is suddenly using.

My primary income is disability. I was in a terrible car accident in 2013. That left me with massive physical damage, and some symptoms of PTSD. The dog that my ex-wife has been sharing custody with me, while I get established here in Oregon, is my service dog named Widget. He has been my service dog since 2019. The veterinarian in Hilo Hawaii has the records of this, and of my being his owner.

He is a medical aide to me, and right now that I have been alienated from my children, he is more important than ever to me.

I hope that the court can see his medical assistance in my life, and how he supports my emotional needs.

I am presently working to raise money to hire an attorney, as I do not know how to navigate the legal system on my own. I ask the court to delay the hearing until late July so that I can hire an attorney.
